Exhibition 04. and 05. July 2015 Strasbourg, France

The FlowerART Academy is host of the first international Florist Meeting of Strasbourg in July 2015.

Three different Topics will be presented from three different Florists.

Andreas Geissmann, Switzerland, International experienced teacher and lecturer is presenting the topic Bouquet.

Björn Kroner, Germany, 5th of World Cup Shanghai 2010 Winner of Singapore Flower and Garden Festival 2014, is leading the seminar Table Decoration and finally Johann Obendrauf, Austria, Winner of the Alpe-Adria Cup 2010 Winner of Austria-Cup 2010, will chair the seminar Interior Decoration.

All these seminars and the exhibition will be held within the unique atmosphere of Strasbourg's Saint Pierre le Jeune Church. Moreover, you are able to be in touch with many international colleagues and guest. Broaden your horizon by attending this International Florist Meeting.

Day 1:

Andreas Geißmann, International experienced teacher and lecturer

You will create different kind of bouquets, starting with the conventional method leading to nearly „constructive“ method of bouquets. All work pieces will be in reference to the architecture and spirit of the ambience.

Day 2:

Björn Kroner, 5th of World Cup Shanghai 2010
Winner of Singapore Flower and Garden Festival 2014

On day 2, you will work in a group of two. Each team will create table decorations to different tasks. All creations will be influenced by the architecture of the Saint Pierre le Jeune Church. The challenge is focused more on interpretation of the sacral building than on copying. New and unconventional techniques will be introduced.

Day 3:

Johann Obendrauf, Austria, Winner of the Alpe-Adria Cup 2010
Winner of Austria-Cup 2010

On the last day, you will have to determine the Church entirely. Saint Pierre le Jeune was started in Romanesque and finished in gothic times. The Interior Decoration should represent the architectural richness of the building show as many

All seminars will be held in three languages: German, English, French.

The following Exhibition will show all the different works, which will be created during the seminars.
